

STRUNG UP A FIEND AT BRADEN, TENN.

A NEGRO IS TORTURED AND LYNCHED BY A MOB.

After He Had Been Hanged to a Telegraph Pole, His Body Was Riddled with Bullets—Admitted His Offense and Acknowledged Committing Other Brutal Crimes.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 16.—Jeff Ellis, a negro charged with criminal assault on a white girl, was lynched on the spot where he committed the crime, near Braden, Tenn., by a mob of several hundred men at a late hour last night. Ellis was taken before his victim for formal identification, after which he was hanged, and while suspended in the air his body was filled with bullets from the revolvers and rifles of the mob.

Ellis, after a rapid flight and resolute pursuit, continuing nine days, was captured Monday morning at an obscure sawmill, eighteen miles east of Hollis Springs, Miss., and safely returned to the scene of his crime yesterday in charge of a strong guard.

He was escorted from Mount Pleasant, Miss., where he was held a prisoner Monday night, to Galloway, in Fayette county, this state, arriving there at 5 p. m. Hundreds of citizens, white and colored, had gathered at Galloway to hail the return of the wretch. Those who had collected made no effort to deal with the captive at once, the silent but common understanding being that a system in inflicting summary punishment should be observed.

Ellis maintained a stoical indifference to his impending fate, stating that he fully realized what was before him. He was given a hearty supper and ate it with apparent relish. As evidence that he either desired to relieve his conscience or else wished to aggravate the vengeance of the whites Ellis confessed to his assault upon Miss Prater, also that he assaulted and murdered Mrs. John Bailey, a white woman, near Arlington, Shelby county, three years ago, and further, that he attempted an assault upon a white girl whom he passed in his flight last Saturday morning. In the case of Mrs. Bailey, her husband became insane from brooding over his wife's tragic death, was sent to the state asylum and died there a few months ago.

The mob reached Braden about 1:30 in the morning. It numbered 200 or 300 men who had gathered at Galloway, Braden, Mason, Summit and neighboring towns. Upon reaching the scene of the crime the torture of the negro was begun. His fingers, his toes and his nose were cut off. He was then emasculated and hanged to the nearest telegraph pole, after which his body was riddled with bullets.

May Lynch Murderers.

Columbus City, Ind., Oct. 16.—The three men who are being held in Fort Wayne for the murder of Postmaster Singer will have their hearing in this city today. W. M. Snurr, the fourth man who has been arrested charged with being implicated in this crime, will be brought along.

It is learned that an organization is being perfected to take charge of the slayers of Singer as soon as they are found guilty at a preliminary hearing. Those interested in the movement held a meeting Saturday night in the rear of one of the stores at Dunfee, and decided on a lynching.

WILL STIR UP THE NATION.

President Cleveland's Annual Message to Congress Anxiously Expected.

Washington, Oct. 16.—President Cleveland's annual message to congress, the preparation of which will soon engage his attention, will be a most noteworthy state paper. It will be more sensational and perhaps of far greater importance than the famous tariff message of 1887. The principal feature of the forthcoming message will be the discussion of the foreign relations. It is expected by those who have the president's confidence that he will deal vigorously with all the diplomatic questions now demanding attention, as vigorously as the developments in those matters may at the moment justify. It is well known that the president is eager for a reply from Great Britain concerning this country's vigorous representation in favor of arbitration in Venezuela, and he wants his reply before the meeting of congress if he can get it.

More important even than these immediate questions, considering the future of the United States, is the policy of over-sea enterprise which the president is expected to foreshadow in his message. If the expectations of certain of Mr. Cleveland's confidential friends are realized, he will say to congress and the country that the time has come for a new American policy, a policy of aggressiveness, both political and commercial, beyond this country's own coast lines.

Hayward Will Make a Statement.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 16.—Harry Hayward said yesterday his attorney is preparing a statement regarding his attempt to break jail, and it is expected it will create a sensation. It is now known that Harry's parents were duped into giving up $2,500 to the parties who were to get Harry out, and one of their plans was to secure an entrance through the roof of the jail. The grand jury also intends to investigate the matter and see that some one is punished.

BANKERS MEET AT ATLANTA.

The Financiers of the Country Are Now in Session.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 16.—The annual meeting of the American Bankers' association was opened yesterday with President J. J. P. Odell in the chair, and an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Porter King. President Odell, in his annual address, suggested that the constitution be so amended as to permit state organizations to be represented in the body in proportion of one delegate to every five members of each organization.

The report of the executive council was then read by Mr. E. H. Pullen, chairman, and the treasurer's report was read and accepted. Gov. Merriam of Minnesota read a paper entitled "The Currency for the Twentieth Century," in which he outlined a new currency scheme. His suggestion was:

"That, say, 40 per cent of the capital of a national bank be invested in United States notes and circulation be issued against the same, the bills remaining in the hands of the treasurer, and currency equal to the amount to the remaining 60 per cent of the capital stock to be delivered to the bank for issuance when desired. Before the unsecured currency is forwarded, however, each bank should pay to the treasurer equal to 5 per cent of its capital stock as a 'bank circulation safety fund,' upon which money the government should allow interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum. The government, in case the assets of insolvent banks be insufficient to reimburse it for the circulating notes of defaulting institutions, may assess each bank in the system pro rata to an amount sufficient to fully indemnify it for any losses incurred, but in any one year no institution shall be assessed more than 1 per cent of its average circulation for the previous year. Inasmuch as there are likely to be at least 4,000 banks organized under any national law the treasurer might act as redeeming agent for all of the banks, and each bank should at all times keep with the treasurer 5 per cent of its capital stock as a redemption fund, which fund should be in gold coin and held in trust for the specific purpose intended. As fast as notes are redeemed the bank should at once remit a sum that would repair any deficiency made by redemption and new notes be forwarded. Inasmuch as the banks would make a profit out of the circulation not secured by United States notes or Sherman notes, it is right that all the banks should pay a tax upon the unsecured notes to the government for the privilege accorded them.

"This tax should be made sufficiently large to pay all the expenses of the offices of the comptroller, including the printing of bank notes, engraving, etc., to pay the United States for the charters granted a handsome revenue which should aid in defraying general expenses and to make the currency elastic. Every bank desiring to become national should pay a tax of 2 per cent per annum upon the amount of its average circulation. It can at once be seen that wherever the demands for money are sufficiently active to enable banks to lend their funds at prices that will net them over 2 per cent there will be an incentive to put out the currency, but when it is worth less than that amount, as it has been in New York and Boston for some months, the unsigned bills would remain in the vaults. The government would receive millions of dollars per annum into its coffers to aid in paying its bills as a return for the privilege granted the banks. In addition, the interest on $100,000,000 of gold now maintained in idleness would be saved and the gold put into active use instead of being out of the channels of trade, there being no further use for a 'gold reserve,' as the bulk of the 'greenbacks' and Sherman notes would be absorbed as a basis for currency or as a reserve against deposits in banks.

"That all parts of the country might have the advantage of national system banks should be permitted to organize with a capital of $25,000, or even less, thus encouraging state banks to abandon their present charters. Banks desiring to organize under this plan should be examined by an agent of the comptroller and permitted to begin business only upon a certificate of the examiner duly certified that the capital stock has been paid in in actual cash."

Bayard Ridicules Ultimatum Report.

London, Oct. 16.—United States Ambassador Bayard was interviewed yesterday respecting the report circulated in the United States that he had been instructed by Secretary Olney to submit an ultimatum to Great Britain on the Venezuelan question in the form of a dispatch, the substance of which was said to be that the United States will never consent to British occupation of the disputed territory in Venezuela unless that nation's right to it is first determined by arbitration. Mr. Bayard ridiculed the statement of an ultimatum having been drawn up by the United States, and said he could not seriously discuss the matter.

National Board of A. P. A.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 16.—The members of the American Protective association, in session here, perfected the organization of the National Advisory board by the election of Judge G. H. D. Stevens, of Detroit, as president; G. W. Van Fossen, of Tacoma, Wash., vice president, and Rev. James D. Dunn, of Boston, secretary. Secretary Dunn stated that reports as to the condition of the order in different states were received. These, he says, were very encouraging.

CITY OF MILWAUKEE IS FIFTY YEARS OLD

SEMI-CENTENNIAL IS NOW BEING CELEBRATED.

The Town Is Gay with Bunting, and Great Enthusiasm Prevails Among the People—Whistles and Bells Usher in the Day—Kenosha Depositors Get But Seventy Cents.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 16.—Milwaukee is gay with the holiday attire that marks her apparel for the ceremony which will commemorate her fiftieth birthday. All along the business streets bunting waves in the air and the national colors flutter from every flag-pole. Great enthusiasm prevails throughout the city over the various parades. The civic parade will be even larger than was imagined it would be a few weeks ago. From 15,000 to 17,000 people will take part in it, and nearly every society in the city will be represented therein. The visiting city officials, who are to be the special guests of the common council, arrived on the early morning trains. Mayor Koch neglected to make any mention in his proclamation of the ringing of bells and the blowing of whistles and last night requested that all bells in the city be rung and whistles blown at 8 o'clock on each morning of the celebration.

Gov. Upham and staff arrived late yesterday afternoon and Gov. Clough and staff of Minnesota arrived on a special train at 7:05 this morning. State officials from Michigan, Iowa and Illinois did not reach Milwaukee until 10:30 this forenoon.

Will Pay Only 70 Cents.

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 16.—George Hale, assignee of the Dan Head & Co. bank, filed an inventory of the bank's accounts this morning. It showed that the bank will not pay more than 70 cents on the dollar. The showing caused a sensation, and numerous suits are likely to follow. It is claimed that the bank was not incorporated as a stock company and that the stockholders are liable in consequence.

Fort Wayne's Big Celebration.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 16.—At 6 o'clock yesterday morning, with the boom of cannon, the shrieks of a hundred whistles and the clanging of as many bells, the centennial anniversary of Fort Wayne was ushered in. The din was terrific. Such a concert of noises was never before heard in the city. Every factory whistle in the city and scores of locomotive whistles were called into service. The bells in all the churches were rung. The guns counted one by one the years of the century. The day broke somewhat cloudy and the air was crisp. However, the sun soon dissolved the mists and made the morning ideal. The downtown streets presented a brilliant appearance. Red, white and blue and yellow and black were strewn in bewildering profusion.

Iowa Odd Fellows Meet.

Marshalltown, Iowa, Oct. 16.—The Iowa Odd Fellows Grand Lodge commenced sessions here yesterday, with a large attendance. In the morning a reception was held. The Rebekah Lodge and grand encampment held sessions. Reports of officers of Rebekah showed the order to be flourishing. The encampment closed in the evening, and the grand lodge proper convenes this morning. The encampment elected J. T. Grevey, Des Moines, G. P., and the other officers. The sessions will last until Friday. Among the important questions is that of the location for the home for indigent brothers, widows, and orphans. The attendance of delegates is the largest in the history of Iowa Odd Fellowship.

Diphtheria at Hammond, Ind.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 16.—On account of the prevalence of diphtheria and other contagious diseases the Board of Education has ordered the public schools in this city closed for an indefinite period. There have been no less than thirty deaths from diphtheria during the last ten days, and now every precaution is being taken to prevent an epidemic. There are about 100 cases at present, which the physicians in charge hope to confine to the homes of the afflicted.

Farmers Lose Droves of Hogs.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 16.—The farmers in Will county are greatly alarmed over a deadly disease that is carrying off entire droves of hogs. Veterinarians have diagnosed several cases, but cannot tell what the disease is, or what to prescribe. An infected hog lives about eight hours, and farmers find many dead on every morning. In many respects the disease resembles cholera.

Baptist Convention at Quincy, Ill.

FIRE AT FOND DU LAC DID MUCH DAMAGE

THE NOVELTY IRON WORKS BURNED THIS MORNING.

Several Other Buildings Were Also Destroyed, and the Loss Is But Partially Covered by Insurance—The Origin Unknown—Fires in Other Places.

Fond du Lac, Oct. 16.—[Special]—Fire broke out in the Variety Iron Works early this morning and the entire plant was destroyed together with August Dadewig's plow works, J. W. Giebel's blacksmith shop, Philip Warner's carpenter shop and a building owned by Dahlman & Cooper. All are a total loss aggregating $6,000 and but partly insured. No clue to the origin.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 16.—A gas-line generator on the ground floor of the Southern Laundry works exploded late yesterday afternoon, and in an instant later was in a blaze. Twelve girls and several young men working on the second floor found escape by the stairway cut off by fire, and jumped from the windows to the ground, a distance of thirty-five feet. Mrs. Lou Miller had both legs broken and her hip fractured. She is fatally hurt, and Miss Fannie Miller, her daughter, aged 21, had an arm and hip broken, and may die. Miss Claudie Clark, aged 18, broke her ankle, and sustained internal injuries. An unknown girl was badly burned. Orange Beckley, aged 20, has a broken leg. A negro was severely burned, and six other persons received slight injuries. The loss is $10,000.

Illinois Village Destroyed.

Quincy, Ill., Oct. 16.—The little village of Loraine, in this county, was almost wiped out by fire yesterday morning. The business portion of the town was destroyed, involving a total loss of $30,000, on which there was only $1,500 insurance. The buildings were all of frame, and the one engine in the town could do little to check the fire.

WANTS MORE CLERGY.

Episcopal Church Is Growing Faster Than the Pastors.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 16.—The house of deputies of the Episcopal convention yesterday listened to the report of Dr. Little of Delaware on the general theological seminary of the church, its progress and its needs. Resolutions were passed recommending that the expense committee raise a fund to pay the traveling expenses of bishops in Europe visiting churches there and declaring it expedient to name a deputation to attend the next meeting of the Canadian synod of the Church of England.

Rev. H. C. Duncan of Louisiana in his report on the state of the church, said that since the last conference in 1892 ten bishops had died, fourteen had been consecrated, four of whom went to missionary districts. The church now has seventy-nine bishops, 4,544 clergymen and 567 candidates for lay orders. There were 190,820 baptisms in the last year and 131,473 confirmations. There are now 618,500 communicants, 5,117 church edifices and nearly 500 institutions of a benevolent or educational character. Contributions from all sources reached $38,000,000. Mr. Duncan showed that the body of communicants was growing faster than the clergy. The increase in the triennium had been 65,791, while the list of priests had grown but 157, a fact he attributed to "insufficiency and diminution of stipends." The income for the three years was less than for the preceding period. The committee made recommendations for patriotic services on the Fourth of July; for stricter regard for the divorce law of the church; for better Sabbath observance, and for a more active propaganda for Christian teaching.

The house of bishops concurred in the action of the deputies providing for final adjournment on October 22, on which day the pastoral letter will be read. Most of the morning session was devoted to constitutional revision. An amendment was adopted to Article V, making the consent of the bishops of dioceses affected, as well as that of the convention, necessary before any diocese or missionary jurisdiction could be erected.

The deputies finally passed the Packard resolution referring the subject of constitutional revision to a new commission, composed of six clerical and six lay members. The bishops will have no connection with the work of the commission.

The house of deputies spent the entire afternoon debating the question of establishing the provincial system in this country. The debate was still on when the deputies adjourned for the afternoon.

Delay in the Durrant Trial.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 16.—The trial of Theodore Durrant was yesterday continued until Monday next, on account of the illness of Attorney Deuprey, the leading counsel of the defense. While the prosecution made no objection to the motion to continue the trial Judge Murphy was reluctant about giving his consent, and announced that the trial would be resumed next Monday whether Mr. Deuprey should have recovered in the meantime or not. Mr. Deuprey is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

AMERICANS SLAIN IN TURKEY.

Moslem Mob Now Down—The Defenseless Subjects of Uncle Sam.

Constantinople, Oct. 16.—Reliable news has been received here that fifty Armenians were killed and a number wounded at Akhissar, in the vilayet of Adin, on the Anatolian railway, by a Moslem crowd.

The slaughter occurred on Oct. 9, which was market day, when many Armenians had gathered from adjacent villages. Early in the morning a Turkish rough, finding that the Armenians were not armed, picked a quarrel and shot one of them. There was then raised on all sides the cry: "Why hesitate to massacre the infidels?"

A mob of Turks, armed with revolvers and knives, then looted the market and massacred the helpless Armenians. Their bodies were thrown into the wells.

No women or children were injured, probably on account of the arrival of the Kaimakan from the village of Gieve, three miles distant, who made valiant efforts at the risk of his own life to save the Christians. Otherwise the slaughter would have been complete.

The panic is reviving in Constantinople on account of the continued isolated attacks and the Armenians are again flocking into the churches. The police disregard the safe conduct cards given to the Armenians by the foreign embassies, and they insult and maltreat the holders of them.

M. Cambon, the French ambassador, M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador, and Sir Phillip Currie, the British ambassador, Monday presented to Said Pasha, the minister of foreign affairs, the final demands of the powers for Armenian reform. If this is not accepted an ultimatum will be presented.

No further modifications will be permitted. The scheme drops the demand for a Christian high commissioner, but otherwise it is almost identical with the proposals of last May. It is believed, however, that Russia hesitates to force an acceptance, because she fears ultimate Armenian autonomy.

News received from Trebizond is to the effect that the Russian postal steamer is lying there with 2,000 Christian refugees on board. Two other vessels, also full of refugees, are there awaiting the arrival of Russian ships to transport them to Batoum.

DISCREDIT THE STORY.

British Soldiers Not Believed to Have Landed in Brazil.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The report that British soldiers had been landed in Brazil and were proceeding to the disputed British-Venezuelan territory is discredited by Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador; by Senor Mendonca, the Brazilian minister, and by Senor Andrade, the Venezuelan minister, the representatives of the three countries concerned. It is agreed by these officials that a move of such supreme importance would be quickly communicated here, and in the absence of any such reports no credit is attached to it.

London, Oct. 16.—The foreign office officials were questioned as to the truth of the report published in the United States that an armed British force is marching through Brazilian territory and that its objective point is that part of Venezuela which is claimed by the British government. They said there was no truth in the story, that there is no British force there and that there would be no object in marching through that portion of Brazil, even if a British force had been available for the purpose outlined.

New York, Oct. 16.—At the office of the Venezuelan consul in this city a representative of the Associated Press was informed that the consul general had received no news whatever of the reported march of British troops on Venezuela.

TALK OF MISSIONS.

Annual Report of the American Board Shows a Loss.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The eighty-sixth annual meeting of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, under whose auspices the foreign mission work of the American Congregational church is conducted, opened at 3 o'clock yesterday in the Church of the Pilgrims. The annual sermon was delivered by Dr. G. A. Gordon of Boston. According to the annual report the total receipts from all sources for the year ended Sept. 30 were $666,433, a net loss. The actual losses have been in legacies, which show a shrinkage of more than $33,000. The question of ways and means for wiping out the large debt which burdens the American board will be one of the matters to come up for discussion.

PULL OFF THE FIGHT IF MONEY IS RAISED

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 16.—The governor says the fight cannot be brought about in the territory of New Mexico if he can help it, and he thinks he can.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 16.—Governor Clarke's determination to stop the Corbett-Fitzsimmons contest at any cost was emphasized yesterday by the presence in this city of General Taylor, of Forest Guard, who was summoned to the capital by telegraph to confer with the governor in regard to the strength of the state militia. General Taylor said positively that the fight would not occur. His purpose in going to Hot Springs, he said, was to warn the people there against the danger to which they would subject themselves should any attempt be made to bring the contest off. The State Guard, General Taylor said, was in good condition and amply sufficient to cope with the case in hand. He could, he said, with a very few hours' notice, land 850 well-drilled and fully equipped men in Hot Springs.

Fight Can't Be Stopped.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 16.—According to the opinion of the best legal talent in Arkansas, there is nothing in the laws of this state by which the contest between Corbett and Fitzsimmons can be prevented. The matter was submitted to two of the best lawyers in the state, and they have given the foregoing as their opinion.

CHINA GIVES IN.

Minister Denby and the British Ambassador Win Their Fight.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Minister Denby and the British minister to China have succeeded in overcoming the obstacles which threatened to make the Ku Cheng commission a failure, as was evidenced by a cablegram received at the state department yesterday from Mr. Denby, which is substantially as follows: "Peking, Oct. 11.—Seventeen criminals will be executed at Ku Cheng. The Yamen agrees that all leaders in the rioting shall be executed; all participants sentenced and all implicated shall be tried. The commission will probably be adjourned. An imperial decree has been issued which refers all of the Szechuan officials implicated to a board of punishment."

Evangelical Conference.

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 17.—Bishop Breyfogel presided at the Evangelical conference yesterday morning. After the usual opening exercises the order of the day, the continuance of the discussion on lay representation, was taken up. The plan suggested by Bishop Escher was adopted—that of one lay delegate to the general conference for every annual conference of 4,500 members, and two delegates for every annual conference of 9,000 members; smaller conferences to be grouped, and no annual conference to send more than two delegates. The manner of electing the lay delegates provoked discussion that consumed the greater part of the day, and was not definitely decided.

Ravages of Cholera in Japan.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Reports to the United States supervising surgeon general that the Marine hospital service indicate that during the present epidemic of cholera in Japan there have been 42,706 cases and 28,513 deaths. These reports agree in saying that the disease was unusually virulent this year, in certain districts almost all the cases proving fatal. It is believed that the epidemic has reached its climax and is now declining.

DOUBLE TRACK LINE SOON TO BE BUILT

C. & N.W. MANAGERS PLANNING MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

Block System Between Janesville and Harvard Is Now Complete, and Is Being Inspected Today—Officials Go Through on a Trip That Will Result in Changes.

Janesville will soon be on the Chicago & Northwestern double track line. The company are now making some extensive improvements, and the trip taken by the officers of the road, who passed through Janesville yesterday, was for the purpose of planning more changes. The new "block signal system" is now complete south of Janesville, the work having been finished yesterday afternoon. The system extends now from this city to Harvard, and for this distance four new "block houses" have been erected. The first one is situated in the south yards at Monterey, the second is built between this city and Shopiere; the third between Clinton and Sharon and the last it placed between Sharon and Harvard. They are on an average of four miles apart, and at each town will also be a "block system wire" at the regular telegraph office.

E. E. Evans chief operator of the general office at Chicago, arrived in the city this morning and with Superintendent of Lines, Smith, they started out on a "bicycle car" for a thorough inspection of the line before it is put in operation. The entire line if nothing unforeseen happens is expected to be in running order the coming week.

The block system has also been put in operation between Baraboo and Madison.

Yesterday the directors made a special trip over the road with the view of ascertaining the cost of a double track which will be built between Elroy and Evansville, a distance of nearly 100 miles and as the double line has been partially built south of this city, it is only a question of time when the line will be completed through Janesville. The C. & N. W. looks for a big business this fall and they are preparing for it.

GOOD COMEDY HERE TONIGHT.

"The Jolly Old Chums" at The Myers This Evening.

Mirth and jollity will reign supreme at the Myers Grand this evening. There is something about a farce comedy that takes, and big doses of humorous elixir have been injected into "Jolly Old Chums." Thomas J. Grady and Budd Ross are two of the funniest comedians on the stage today. They enact the two leading comedy roles. Miss Carrie Lamont, the charming soubrette, whose many admirers will gladly welcome her in a part that gives her ample room to display her many talents. Miss Lillian Stillman assumes the female comedy role. Her conception of the part in make-up and impersonation could not be excelled. Miss Jennie Graves sings like a nightingale. Misses Edna West and Hattie Bernard sing sweetly and dances as graceful as fairies. Harry T. Lester and Harry Hughes are one of the cleverest sketch teams that can be seen here this season. They receive an ovation upon their appearance and encore after encore are heaped upon them. Special mention should be made of the chorus, which is strongest that has ever been seen in farce-comedy. In fact the show is good all through, clean and neat, and uproariously funny.

The Present Generation

Lives at telegraphic speed—eats too fast, retires too late, does not rise betimes, smokes and (alas that we should have to say it!) chews too much tobacco. The consequences are dyspepsia, a general absence of that robust and manly vigor which characterized our ancestors, and a manifest proneness to early decay. Regular hours, a due allowance of time for meals, the disuse of excessive smoking, and altogether of chewing tobacco, in connection with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will in nine cases out of ten efface the consequences of the abuses of the laws of health indicated above. A want of stamina, dyspepsia, nervousness and biliousness are among the consequences, and they are bodily ills to the removal of which the Bitters is specially adapted. Nor is the Bitters less fitted to overcome and prevent fever and ague, kidney and bladder troubles, and rheumatic ailments. It is also a fine appetizer and promoter of convalescence.

"WISCONSIN'S" SPECIAL EDITION

It Took Twenty-Eight Pages To Tell About the Big Celebration.

Janesville readers of the Evening Wisconsin were agreeably surprised when they received that most excellent paper last night. Twenty-eight pages were devoted to the news of the day in general, and of the Cream City's semi-centennial celebration in particular. The edition was copiously illustrated and of great historical value. The well laid plans of Managing Editor Bleyer had been carried out by able assistants, and the edition was one that The Wisconsin and Milwaukee might well be proud of.

JOHN DAY DID WELL AT ATHLETIC GAMES

JANESVILLE MAN WON HONORS AT MADISON.

He Was Entered in Five of the Twelve Contests, and Won Them All, Thus Demonstrating That He Was the Best Man in the Lower Classes.

Madison, October 16.—The annual Sophomore-Freshman field day took place here yesterday. Every event was hotly contested but the Sophomores came off victorious. John Day proved himself to be the best athlete in the two lower classes, winning more events than any other two men. He entered in five of the twelve events and came out with five firsts. He won the running high jump in which there were seven entries, his best jump being five feet, five and one-half inches, also the running broad jump making eighteen and three-quarters feet.

In the pole vault there were two men entered who have a record of ten feet, but they were evidently out of condition as Day's jump of eight feet won the event.

In putting the sixteen-pound shot he took first place by a throw of thirty-three feet. He also won the hammer throw making a throw of ninety-seven and a half feet.

Ralph Jackman was one of the scorers.

George Brownell is gaining some distinction as a foot ball player. He played half-back in the sophomore team which played a close game with the juniors, being beaten by a score of 8 to 10. P. F. B.

A REMARKABLE CURE.

A CASE OF PILES OF EIGHTEEN YEARS STANDING.

Cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure.

There are plenty of pile cures which give relief and sometimes cure a mild case of piles, but there is only one which can be depended upon with certainty to cure obstinate long standing cases, and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure.

Endorsements and testimonials are received daily from men and women whose integrity and reliability are above question and in this connection a letter received from the Rev. Jas. H. Wesbrook, of Lawrence, Mich., may be of interest to piles sufferers who have sought in vain for a cure. He says:

I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure and I know that it is all that is claimed for it. I had been troubled with piles more or less for about eighteen years and I had tried about remedies, but the piles grew worse until about ten months ago I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. It gave almost instant relief and I have been free from piles ever since. Rev. Jas. H. Wesbrook.

The remedy seems to act equally well in every form of piles, blind, bleeding, protruding or itching. It stops all pain almost immediately, allays irritation and removes constipation, and anyone who has suffered the annoyance and pain of a rectal trouble will appreciate the excellent results which invariably follow the first application of the Pyramid.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere. Two sizes, 50 Cents and $1. Sold by all druggists.

AWAKES FROM A LONG SLEEP.
 Everything that savors of bloody-shirtism has been excluded rigidly from the republican campaign in Maryland this year. Republican prospects throughout the south will be brightened by the contest. The evil results of twenty-eight years of democratic rule are being cited, and the people are making up their minds to vote intelligently and independently. It is a notorious fact that democratic politics and methods have greatly retarded the progress of Maryland, and prevented her from making the best use of her opportunities. The proofs to this effect are in plain view, and any intelligent citizen can readily discern and understand them.

There is only one sure and complete remedy for such misfortune, and that is to place the control of affairs in the hands of another and more competent party. It is idle to look for any improvement under continued democratic rule. There must be a change to something better in that respect before there can be any escape from existing drawbacks and sources of depression and disappointment.

HAS NOT DESERVED CONFIDENCE.
 Senator Sherman is right about one thing, "the people have no confidence in the democratic party." The party went into power in 1893 under reasonably favorable conditions. Of course the panic hurt it. Panics always hurt the party in power at the time. The party's own shiftlessness and lunacy, however, hurt it far more than the panic. Its wranglings on the tariff, and the attempts of its Blands, Vests and Harrises to inflict a financial policy on the country which business interests dreaded, and which the country has repudiated by sending an overwhelming majority to the house of representatives committed against it, would wreck a stronger party than the democracy has been at any time in the past third of a century.

SOON THE POT WILL BOIL.
 Politics will be the principal concern of half or two thirds of the population of the country in a very few months now. If that "short canvass" comes which nearly everybody except the politicians and political strikers wants, nominations are about ten months away, while if the "long canvass" takes place they are but eight months off. In either event the time is short.

A farmer in Eastern Pennsylvania has harvested eight thousand bushels of potatoes on thirty-two acres of land, and his brother's crop on twenty acres is 4,800 bushels. Wisconsin can't ship many potatoes down east this year.

Milwaukee is celebrating her semi-centennial and well she may. A proud record of progress has been left to her by those fifty years.

Judged in the light of ascertained figures the South African gold inflation is one of the curiosities of modern finance.

There hasn't been quite as much Harrison talk since the Indianapolis elections.

Just a War Yarn.

Here is a reminiscence of war time from the Seattle Intelligencer: A strange story in which Seattle has an interest has come to light in connection with the battle of the Wilderness, through the desire of a small boy to get hold of a bird's nest. Henry F. Lowpenny, a corporal in the Thirty-second Indiana Volunteers, lost his right arm at the elbow during the battle by the explosion of a shell. Since then Lowpenny has died, but his widow resides in this city with a married daughter, Bradley Johnson, a cousin of Lowpenny and also ex-State Chancellor of Missouri, now resides on the scene of the battle, and a few weeks ago his little son, while bird's nesting, discovered a nest built in a skeleton hand in the fork of a large maple tree. On one of the bony fingers was found a seal ring which was recognized by Mr. Jamison as having belonged to Lowpenny.

CANARY PUT IN JAIL IN DEFAULT OF BAIL

AMENDED COMPLAINT WAS FILED THIS MORNING.

Embodies the Charge That the Shooting of Sullivan Was the Defendant's Second Offense, and Judge Phelps Required Bonds in the Sum of $5,000, Which Canary Couldn't Get.

William Canary's bail on the charge of shooting John F. Sullivan, was raised to $5,000 this morning, and up to 3 o'clock he had been unable to get bondsmen and was still in jail.

The case came before Judge Phelps in the municipal this morning, when, on motion of District Attorney Jackson, the charge of assault with intent to murder, was withdrawn, the case was dismissed and the defendant discharged. His liberty was of but a few moments duration, however, for Officer Hogan at once stepped forward and read a new warrant and rearrested him. The second warrant was based on an amended complaint, charging Canary with the same offense as the first one—assault with intent to murder—but it had been amended it had to embody the charge that it was Canary's second offense, and set forth that on Nov. 30, 1877, he had been sentenced, by the circuit court to three years in state's prison, which sentence now remains unreversed.

Bail Put at $5,000.

This complaint was then read to the defendant, but he made no answer, although he waived examination. The court then found that an offense had been committed, and that there was probable cause to believe that the accused was guilty, so Canary was required to give bail in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance on October 23, at 9 a. m. Mr. Canary thought the bail required was rather a large sum, but the court refused to reduce it.

The penalty where "second offense" is also charged, ranges from one to twenty-eight years in state's prison, the law making it possible to impose double the sentence provided for the first offense.

Thomas Tierney, one of the witnesses for the state was also required by the court, to give fifty dollar bonds to appear and testify, whereupon Tierney deposited $50 in cash with Clerk Williams.

Names of Some of Them Said To Be on the List of Witnesses To Be Called Upon When the Case Comes To Trial at Rockford—Defendants Held.

The outcome of the arrest of the crowd at the Higgins joint near Beloit is being watched with a great deal of interest by Line City people. "They say the officers have a list of names of young men who will be called upon as witnesses that will set the town by the ears," said a prominent Beloit business man to a Gazette reporter. "Whether or not this is true remains to be seen, but there's considerable uneasiness in certain places in town."

The parties were all in court yesterday except Rhoda Whalen who would be able to appear owing to the fact that he was unwise enough to oppose Sheriff Tuohy.

Mat. Whalen, his son, was held to the grand jury for being an inmate of a disorderly house. His bail was fixed at $50.

The Tennessee Centennial Exposition.

When the Atlanta exposition is over, we may begin to save up our dimes and dollars for another great fair in the south. This will be the Tennessee Centennial exposition, to be held at Nashville next year in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of Tennessee's birth as a sovereign state. The selection of Major J. W. Thomas as president of the centennial commission is an earnest of the vigorous work which is being done in preparation for the exposition, which will begin on June 1 and continue through the summer and autumn. Major Thomas is the president of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad.

A Colored Girl Preacher.

One of the most successful revivalists in the south at present is Claretta Norah Avery, a little colored girl who is not quite 10 years of age.

CLARETTA AVERY.

When she was 18 months old, she says, she was converted to the Christian religion, and since that time she has felt a "call" to preach to her people. Since she was 3 years old she has attended church from one to three times each Sunday whenever she could do so and has always preferred to hear white ministers. She has a most marvelous memory, and it is said that she can repeat a sermon word for word after having once heard it. About three years ago she persuaded her friends to allow her to preach her first sermon in Raleigh. She did so well then that she has since met with no opposition. In Oxford, N. C., 150 persons professed religion as a result of her preaching. She made 34 converts in Sandford, N. C., 10 in Vass, 50 in Wadesboro, 39 in Morvan and 22 in Society Hill, S. C.

A Shrewd Peasant.

A countryman went to a lawyer, laid before him a case in dispute, and then asked him if he would undertake to win the suit.

Lawyer—Most certainly I will undertake the case. We are sure to win! Peasant—So you really think it is a good case?

Lawyer—Undoubtedly. I am prepared to guarantee you will get a verdict in your favor.

Peasant—Well, then, sir, I don't think I'll go to law this time, for, you see, I have just given you my opponent's case and not my own.—Fliegende Blaetter.

No Danger of an Alarm.

First Thief (in hotel bedroom)—Go quiet, Jim. There's a woman asleep in that bed.

Second Thief—It don't matter if she wakes up.

"It don't? One scream would bring half the folks in the house to the door."

"She won't scream. If she wakes up she'll throw the covers over her head and keep still."

"Why will she?"

"Her hair is all up in curl papers."—N. Y. Weekly.

Didn't Know the Language.

Poet (to farmer)—See what a beautiful prospect is unfolded in yonder billowy fields, and, hark! the voice of the plowman!

Farmer—Yes, he's been a-cussin' of that mule sence daylight, and it's one of them German mules that used to pull a beer wagon and he can't understand a word of it.—Atlanta Constitution.

He Would Need It.

Mrs. Skinner—I'm glad to hear you say you have such a good appetite.

Mr. Newboarder (about to take his first meal, and much pleased at the prospect)—Landladies generally fear a good appetite.

Mrs. Skinner—I don't; when a man has a good appetite he can eat almost anything.—Puck.

The Rival Singers.

Mr. Richfello—That was a neat speech Miss Soprano made at the charity concert last night, when a brute in the audience hissed her. I wonder how she could think of so many bright things all at once.

Miss Contralto—Oh, she's made that speech hundreds of times.—N. Y. Weekly.

It's a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Kisers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure, and are the best. C. D. Stevers.

Quite Another Story.

Lady (widow)—Do you know that my daughter has set her eyes upon you, Herr Muller?

Gentleman (flattered)—Has she really?

Lady—Certainly; only to-day she was saying: "That's the sort of a gentleman I should like for my papa."—Tit-Bits.

That Would Do It.

Old Toterly—And you say your love for me is a sort of intoxication?

Tottie Twinkletoes (absentmindedly)—Yep.

Old Toterly (delighted)—And there is no cure for this intoxication?

Tottie Twinkletoes (waking up)—Well, you might try the gold cure.—N. Y. World.

HOW TO MAKE JACKETS.

How to Baste, Stitch and Press Cloth Garments.

In making outside jackets, for which cloth is the usual material the pieces should be basted together with small stitches, taken one at a time, and the seams should be narrow. The machine stitching should be done with fine sewing silk, and the stitch should be long to avoid cutting the goods. The stitched seams must be pressed open over the edge of a board, and if the fabric is stiff or springy the inside of the seam may be moistened with a damp sponge before being pressed. The hot iron ought to touch only the seam, and before the goods are dampened water should be sprinkled on a separate scrap to make sure that moisture does not change the color. While passing the iron over material do not pull the stuff unless additional fullness is desired. The edge of a collar or other piece of the garment is sometimes stretched while being ironed on purpose to curve it. The opposite effect is secured if a hot iron is placed upon the goods and left motionless. Where a bias strip is employed for a high collar the lower edge may be thus stretched and the upper edge shrunk to give the collar a roundness.

The collar revers, lower part of sleeves and pocket flaps are lined with tailor's linen, fine and not too stiff, and bias strips of the same material are placed inside the folds at the front edges of the jacket and around the lower edge where the lines of stitching are to run, stitching forming the almost invariable finish of cloth coats and jackets.

If there is to be a lining, it must be cut a little larger and longer than the jacket and should be added after the garment is entirely finished otherwise, buttonholes, collar, pockets, stitching, trimming and all.

A picture is given of a gown of Formosa cloth. The bodice skirt is finished around the foot with five rows of stitching. The short jacket bodice has a ripple basque and double revers of white cloth opening over a chemise of blue surah ornamented with frills. The collar and belt are of surah. The balloon sleeves are very full, and stitching finishes the wrists and all edges of the jacket.

WINTER STYLES.

Dotted Velvets, Taffeta and Plaids—Fur Trimmings.

Fur is to be as fashionable this winter as it has been for the last two and is to be largely combined with plaids and velvets. Velvet has been worn all summer in the shape of bands, bows, choux, collars and belts, and plain as well as novelty velvets will be worn during the coming season. Velvet and taffeta will be combined for blouses, the heavier goods forming an immense collar and small cuffs. Dotted velvets, printed ones and those having a shot or boucle effect are shown.

Pompadour silks and silks with a cashmere effect are to be employed for fashionable blouses, which garments are more or less elaborately trimmed with lace and rich passementerie.

Among the new accessories is a lace collar with neckband and bretelles of velvet, which may be worn with any plain bodice.

Dark green and mulberry are fashionable winter colors, while orange will be employed in small quantities.

Winter hats show a strong tendency to run to crown, that part of them being most in evidence. The felt shapes are trimmed simply with a band and bow of broad ribbon or velvet with perhaps a quill in addition. The Tam O'Shanter crown is again coming into favor for general wear. The fashion of fastening bodices and skirts with ornamental buttons is becoming universal. Buttons are employed even on hats, while their utilization as gown trimming knows no limit. They secure draperies, revers and straps and loop up millinery laces. Of course the buttons are highly ornamental ones and are expensive enough to insure exclusiveness. Buttons of the Louis Seize order are in great request for winter costumes.

The illustration shows a gown of changeable violet and green taffeta. The bodice skirt opens over a tablier of violet velvet ornamented with cut silver buttons. The taffeta corsage has a plastron and bretelles of violet velvet, the latter fastened with silver buttons. The gigot sleeves are of taffeta, and wide epaulets of emerald velvet, with an application of guipure, extend over the shoulders. The belt and collar are likewise of green velvet. A black felt hat accompanies the gown and is trimmed with emerald velvet and violet plumes.

The man who stands idly by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable examinations and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for thirty years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain cure for all derangements, weaknesses, irregularities and displacements of internal organs peculiar to women.

The Idea

seems to be prevalent, that a better Overcoat can be bought ready made, than a Tailor can make at the same money.

An Incident.

A gentleman called at the store the other night—to wait for a car—He remarked that he had bought a $25 ready-made Overcoat; said he thought he could get better goods for the same money than a tailor could give him. I made no reply but simply laid out on the table a piece of Black Beaver, some all silk lining, Satin sleeve lining, Velvet pocketing, and Soutache buttons and said I would make those to fit you at $25. His car came in sight and with a disgusted look on his face he said: I'm Stuck.

That's Right.

Go ahead—buy shoddy Beaver Overcoats—last year's styles with Cotton Velvet Collars, Cotton back Silk lining cut out by the foot with a knife like meat; made to fit any body—and in reality fits nobody—sewed together in two and one-half hours at a cost of $1.62 for labor—made out of goods made expressly for ready-made trade, because, in the piece you would not buy it at all. The manufacturer makes 20 per cent, the retailer 50 per cent and the purchaser gets left.

In two minutes

I can convince you that I can give you better goods better trimmings, better work by 100 per cent, better looks, better fits by 100 per cent and with all that a feeling of satisfaction and pride that your garment was made for you—not for anybody.

that Janesville tailors, with their slow ways, short-sightedness and high prices have turned the people from their own doors into the ready-made store. There is one Tailor in town who can see further in advance than the end of his nose; and he is going to build up a tailoring trade worthy of this model town and we have thirty-five thousand dollars and an unlimited credit to stay by us until it is accomplished.
